A.M.S. Tag Day To Culminate With Dance In Gym; Rosen's Orchestra

Vernon Rees Urges Support of Affair From Entire Student Body

"This is an affair that everyone should support," declared Vernon Rees, A. M. S. president today, in speaking of "Tag Day," latest event to be sponsored by his group.

Bill Ferem, chairman, added in a later conversation, "Give us a break, will ya?" He remarked that "Tag Day" does not concern the A. M. S. alone, but is to benefit the entire student body, since the proceeds will be used to develop Roberts Stadium.

Tags, at fifteen cents each, will be sold April 14 to 16. The sale will culminate on the evening of April 16 in a dance in the Women's Gym to the music of Joe Rosen's Rhythm Kings.

Admission will consist of a tag plus ten cents.

THE SOCIAL SWIRL

Attention, women! Does any one of you happen to be the very fortunate possessor of forty-five cents? If so, you don't realize how very, very lucky you are. There's a cute little place down the Peninsula a ways known as Pacific City and 'tis to this spot the P. E. Club is hieing itself on Wednesday evening. There's only room for eighteen, so better hurry and sign up, gels! ... And speaking of hilarity, etc. ... we hear that the Newman Club more than overdid themselves Friday night at the Palace in the way of having a good time. ... Congrats are in order for Kappa Delta Tau for doing such a nice bit of representing at the Stanford Dance Symposium. ... Los Lazarillos are next in line to sponsor a noon dance. ... Did'ja hear about the W. A. A.'s going cycling in Golden Gate Park Saturday? ... Notice! Don't miss the Bib 'n' Tucker display at the A. P. G. Fair tonight ... they've been spending weeks making the cutest little paper hats. ... While speaking of these stylists of State, Victoria Regier asks me to remind everyone of the barbecue they're having at Virginia Stolte's home in Mill Valley. ... Take car number 5 or 31 Friday night. ... What for? Why, Epsilon Mu's social meeting at Ida Fertig's ... refreshments, games, dancing ... oh, yes, and dues. ... And for all radicals on the campus ... the A. S. U. Peace meeting will be Friday in Annex A. ... Don't forget!

'Dulcy' Presented By State Thespians

George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly's play, "Dulcy," has been selected by College Theatre as their next vehicle, and nightly rehearsals are already under way.

The play, originally presented in Cort Theatre, Chicago, starring Lynn Fontaine and John Westley, is said, by members of the present cast, to be a hilarious farce. The plot is based on the match-making propensities of Dulcy, a romantic housewife. All the unmarried members of the cast, except Dulcy's brother, Willie, are included in her plots.

Roles have been assigned as follows: Dulcinea, Patricia McNamara; Gordon Smith, Alex Pellett; William Parker, Bob Prather; C. Roger Forbes, John Dower; Mrs. Forbes, Virginia Gildea; Angela Forbes, Dorothy Person; Tom Sterrett, J. Wallace Gallagher; Vincent Leach, Harold Jacobs; Blair Patterson, Walter Bartman; Sadie, Sarita Canedo.

The part of Schuyler Van Dyck, a genius of the piano who has delusions of grandeur, is the only role which remains uncast.

No date has been set for the presentation of this play, but, according to members of the cast, it should be proffered within a month and a half.

Open House, Reception Held at Frederic Burk

Frederic Burk will be the scene of an Open House and reception, to be sponsored by the supervisors and teachers of the Frederic Burk School, and the Associated Women Students.

This event will be held on April 16, from 2:00-3:00 p.m.

The training school will be open all day to Education 130 students, and prospective entrants into teacher training. The purpose of this Open House is to enable prospective teachers to make the acquaintance of Frederic Burk supervisors, and Deans of the Department of Education.

Victoria Regier, chairman of the day, has named her assistants as follows: Hostess, Mary Howard; Invitations, Dorothy Becker; Donna Rae Watson, Refreshments; Marie Parkenig, Program; Beverly Guichard, Decorations; Carol McKowan, Arrangements; and Ruth Creon and Al Thompson.

Dawn Wilson will act as Chairman of Publicity; Bernice Michael, Frederic Burk Chairman of the Day.

Ramona Galino will function as the Frederic Burk Hostess.

All guests will be excused from 2 and 3 o'clock classes.

Muldoon Running For S. B. Treasurer

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of unofficial stories on possible candidates for student body offices at the coming election. The survey of candidates is being made merely to aid the readers of the paper and has no official bearing whatsoever.

With a long record of past executive experience here at State College, Frank Muldoon has entered his application to run for treasurer of the student body.

He is at present, president of the high sophomore class, as well as marshal of the Newman Club. His past offices include president of the low sophomore class, vice-president of the Newman Club, and membership on various committees such as for the Soph Strut, Forest Hills Dinner Dance, etc.

Dawn Wilson, petite candidate for vice-president, entered the college in 1934, and at the same time entered into many activities here.

She is well known on the campus, being at present vice-chairman of the Advisory Council, assistant yell leader, a member of Bib 'n' Tucker and Phi Lambda Chi. She has headed various committees such as for rallies, Trampodan Ball, and the Phi Lambda Chi circus.

Econ Tests Sold in Co-op to All Ambitious Students

Ahoy! Attention you Econ students! Your bootlegging of tests to other students is at an end!

For you have met your match when you try to put anything over on our Profs. So you are to please take notice that from now on all the tests which you so slyly slipped to your best friends, may be purchased at the Co-op for a few cents.

This ought to be a great help to those students who did not have anyone to secure copies of the tests for them, and also to those who do not want to put themselves under obligations to even their friends. So ye merry people, ye can all procure the back tests for your studying. And good luck to you!

Scribes Club Plans Orphic

Today the Scribes Club is meeting at noon in the activities room to discuss dramatic criticism, and also to make plans for the future of their magazine, "The Orphic." Anyone who is interested in writing of any kind is welcome to attend.

Phi Lambda Pledges Put Through Ropes

Gamboling on the green was the chief activity of the initiates of Phi Lambda Chi last Friday as they were put through their paces by Dawn Wilson, chairman of the day, to the amusement of student spectators.

Leap frog and other games usually relegated to our more youthful days, were the cause of much merriment. The initiates were also made to sing "The Man on the Flying Trapeze" at the Baseball rally in the gym.

As a culmination to the campus Hell Day, the initiates convened at the Phi Lambda house at 7:30 in the evening for a Pajamarino and further hair-raising stunts were given to the pledges.

Carrying out the social aims of the organization, the club is to hold its Formal Spring Dansant at the Residence Club. Bids and information relative to dance may be obtained from club members.

Varsity Varieties Need Talent, Smith

Varsity Varieties, State's radio program which was originally scheduled to be resumed over KYA next Friday, is to be postponed indefinitely until a revision of the program is completed.

Will Smith, who acts as master of ceremonies on the program, today said that this temporary abandonment of the skit should not be construed as meaning that the program was to be discontinued. He added, "Our objective is to establish a permanent State radio program over one of the local stations, probably KYA."

Smith stressed the need of additional novelty talent, including vocal, instrumental, and tap specialties.

Anyone interested in taking part in the program is asked to contact Smith or Bill Buchan.

Permanent members of the program include Helen Louise Cox, featured vocalist; Phil Ford, tap dancer; and Smith, as master of ceremonies.

Music Federation Presents Program at Mission High

Last Friday the Music Federation entertained the Mission High School Student Body by presenting a special arrangement of their school song.

The arrangement was made for chorus and orchestra with Stephen Lehmer singing a solo part. Paul De Poister put on a tap dance in conjunction with the song.

The remainder of the program was made up of Brahms' "Requiem" and the Wagner Festival Prelude.

Berlin "Olympiad" Will Be Copied
For Opening Ceremonies
at Roberts Field

Pirate girls clad in the colorful costumes of the Spanish Main, Gypsies dressed in the manner of their race, slim bare-legged runners wearing the Purple and Gold uniform, picturesque novelty men with a halo of balloons about them, and bands of vividly-hued drill teams will compose the swiftly changing kaleidoscope of movement at the Alphi Phi Gamma World's Fair tonight.

With precisely the same pageantry that marked the opening of the Olympic Games in Berlin last summer, the local affair will begin. About 7:40 a runner bearing a red torch will enter the south gate, will circle the field once and will ignite a beacon at the north end of the field. A moment later the semi-gloom of the stadium will be broken by a blaze of lights from the massed banks of incandescents bordering the green oval.

Then the scene will shift to the center of the green, where four relay teams of different races will vie for supremacy in an international relay. Wallace Gallagher will start them.

Later, drill teams from different points of the city will compete for the cup which will be given to the best team on the field as decided by the judges.

There will be other attractions of a different nature, exhibits of an educational nature, concessions for food, booths where skill is rewarded and finally the unique "Man on the Street."

The Arithmetic Test will be held on April 17, in Rooms 208 and 210, at 9:00.

The Penmanship Test will be held in Room 117 on April 17.

People with names from:
A to N—11:30.
N to Z—11:30-12:00.

All those who are planning to take Subject C, should sign up with Miss Casebolt at once.

All students intending to take a teaching credential on any level are required to meet a penmanship requirement. For that purpose a test has been scheduled for Saturday, April 17, at 11 o'clock in Room 117, College Hall. All supplies will be furnished.

Student Elections Near

With student body elections approaching, the next few weeks will see the campaign built up to a fever heat with the supporters of the various candidates for office loudly singing the praises of their particular man.

It is a time when the individual student must stop and clearly analyze the qualifications of each candidate and attempt to choose the person who will act in the most satisfactory way for all concerned. The student must become acquainted with the persons running for the various offices.

By all means don't be confused in thinking that the most conspicuous person is the proper man for the office. Frequently the person who has done the most work for the College and who really deserved to be elected to a responsible position is the one who has done his work in quiet. The person whose face you see at student functions, who has a conspicuous part in everything is not necessarily the one who has the qualifications for the position he seeks.

The Golden Gater can not endorse any specific candidate, it can only ask the electorate of the College to judge wisely and look deeply into the merits of each person for whom it casts its ballot.

World's Fair

The Alpha Phi Gamma Intercollegiate World's Fair is an event that is worthy of the support of every student of the College.

Not only is it staged to provide money for a scholarship for some outstanding high school student in the bay district whose attendance at San Francisco State will be to the advantage of the College; but it is an event that is attracting the attention of hundreds of people in San Francisco and vicinity.

The torch race up Market Street, opening the Fair, which was arranged by Chairman Smith, will attract the attention of thousands. The collaboration with the Exposition officials in staging the event promises to bring to the minds of a great number of city officials that we do have an active College and that it is doing big things. And that, in itself, is an important objective that must be observed by our student officials in all their activities. We must make every effort to come before the public in order to let San Francisco as a city know that there is a college here, and that it needs the City's support.

'OH BOY'

Chamberlin's Tripe

By Bob Chamberlin

Weel, m' bairns, 'twould seem that after last issue's catastrophous mistake . . . we'll keep the column chamberlinized until such time as we can find a better columnist . . . step up, braggarts.

Just what is it about this spring weather that seems to find Marie Hirsh sorta close to Phil Dunn . . . and Virginia Valentine and Friend Lewis sunburned on the same day, the same way? . . . Gene Hook leans over a co-op counter and gazes dreamy-like into Barb Christians' double-O. K. orbs . . . Hal Beeseman and Fran Merrill have it, too . . . in fact, it's so bad that even Bob Steenburg gets an occasional glance from some nearsighted femme.

Here's the proverbial straw for the much-publicized Roy Laugeson . . . it's obvious that the Rosemary Alexander's glow for the big Dane has cooled to the point of indifference. . . . Now we know what he hasn't got!

One more for Sieber . . . why does he have seven (in a row) bottles of Alka-Seltzer in his desk?

Politics seems to simmer quietly for the moment . . . Frank Muldoon is groping around for an angle to work so that he can down Mirande and "Who's - the - logical - man - for - treasurer?" Minear. Since Howie Demeke pulled out of the Presidential wrestle to buck Barry and Rose for Director of Publications, the top-man contest is just between a yell leader and a journalist.

Incidentally, my box number is 859, any suggestions will really be appreciated . . . just stuff 'em in . . . and if you remember what mom told you about dirty words . . . we'll print it.

Coroner's Inquest

By Tom Thorpe

When you read that a "coroner's inquest was held to determine the cause of death," do you understand what that means? If you do, cease reading; if you don't, take your choice, because I will endeavor to explain briefly the reason for it.

One of the main reasons for holding a coroner's inquest is to determine the cause of death and to prove, through the use of a jury, whether the deceased met his or her death in a natural manner. Where misadventure or violence takes place the death is not natural; such as, suicide, murder, street fight, etc. Also, in the case of where a doctor has not attended the victim twenty-four hours previous to his death, an inquest is held. For example, an inquest would run something like this:

"John Doe, age 16, while fixing the brakes on his automobile, was struck on the back of head by the battery-box when the car slipped and rolled forward." Some parent, and witnesses if there are any, are then asked if they are satisfied that the cause of the death was due to a broken neck suffered from the blow by the car. This is almost the same in every case, whether death is due to excessive drinking, heart failure or a number of other things.

The jury is made up of San Francisco's select business men, with Coroner T. B. Leland presiding.

Not to change the subject, but I would like to print the gist of a note I received from one of my feminine readers:

Dear Mr. Thorpe:

Does the beautiful month of April, when all of us have gone aesthetic and our fancies have turned to love and stuff, seem just the right time for you to write a full column article on morgues and moist, clammy bodies kept in cold storage? If you want to print the stuff I like to read, just fill the column with rare selections of poetry!

Sincerely yours,

B. ALEXANDER

GATER SPORTS

GOLDEN GATER

STATE MEETS MARIN IN FIRST ENCOUNTER

Page 3

Spring Football Starts Today; Farmer Optimistic

Dan Farmer Gives Dope On Next Year's Squad;
New Talent

Football, a game that is played during the fall months, is again trying to usurp its country cousins, the spring sports. The annual spring practice of the Gater gridsters will get under way Monday, April 19, when Dan Farmer sends out the call for candidates. Monday and Tuesday will be devoted to issuing suits, with actual practice getting under way on Wednesday.

WEAK IN TACKLING

State, the team that was supposed to be nothing but a doormat, slipped over a couple of surprises last year. Playing far, far over their heads and with nothing but a punt and a promise, the Gaters dumped S. F. J. C. and Chico for upsets. Woefully weak in tackling in the open field and slow on their downfield blocking, the Purple and Gold dropped games they should have won. By concentrating on blocking and tackling this spring, Farmer hopes to strengthen next year's varsity. Daily at Roberts Field the gridsters will engage in actual drill and climax their activities with full length game at the end of the year.

PLENTY OF MATERIAL

State should be blessed with a surplus of material next year. Farmer isn't much worried about his backfield material with the return of Bill Harkness, the passing wizard at fullback, and "Gabby" Abbey, Hopkins, Kelnhoffer, Hammond, Chandler, Woods, and possibly Peter Pedroni. Abbey at quarter has the benefit of a year's experience, and the freshmen of yesterday will utilize the experience they gained last year. Hopkins, a veteran of two years, is a doubtful football candidate because of his track work.

Farmer chortles when he looks at the line material. Led by Captain Hal Beeseman, giant tackle for the last three years, there are veterans looming up from end to end. Ru Stone, long-legged end, is back again. Bill Plutte and "Hook" Hanrahan, veteran tackles, return again. Bill Ferem will be there again at center, as will Bud Glasgow, varsity center of the '35 grid team. Ralph Kauer, Duke Fischer, Hank Summers and Chet Phillips will report again to probably make up the varsity line.

FARMER TALKS

So Head Man Farmer, carrying on while his partner Harden guides the baseball team, plans on an extensive and grilling spring tune-up. In his words it is thus:

"No dilly-dallying around this year. Spring practice will be carried on as if it were actual fall practice. Scrimmage and practice in fundamentals will be climaxed by a regulation game between two picked teams. If anyone is planning to come out for practice for a nice easy time, I'd like to warn him now. Spring football practice is going to be tough."

Inside Dope on Jim Hopkins Given Out

"Hoppy" Hopkins, State's new iron man of track—such has been the general trend of the reams of material that has filtered out of the campus this season. But few people on the campus realize that the cinder squad has two Hoppy Hopkinses.

Jim Hopkins, the frosh flash of the dashes, has been a consistent placer in the varsity meets and a winner in the Jayvee meets. He has turned in firsts in the 220- and 100-yard dashes, and has been number four man on the winning relay teams. His latest feat was taking a second in the sensational 220 of the Santa Rosa meet. His time for the 220 was close to 22 seconds, which is really good for a frosh.

"Hoppy" originally comes from Fairfield in the "sticks" of California. There he spent his freshman and sophomore years and played an exceptional brand of basketball, besides being one of their track stars. He left Fairfield for the greener pastures of the Bay Region, moving to Oakland, where he finished high school at University High, again a member of the track and basketball teams. The Uni. faculty finally decided to let him go, and he decided to continue his career here at State. Last year he was on the Jayvee basketball team, and is now breezing down the cinder path.

He intends to become a coach, and is taking a special P. E. course. By the time he reaches his senior year, he ought to develop into one of State's outstanding athletes.

U. S. F. Dumps Gater Tennis Squad 7 to 2

The State tennis team continued their string of defeats by being dumped bodily by the strong U. S. F. racket wielders Friday at the Palace of Fine Arts courts, 7 matches to 2. English and Cray were the only Staters to wear the winning colors. It was the 26th straight win for the blonde "Little Caesar" English, who seems to have the only ability and fight to finish what he starts in the way of knocking the tennis ball around the court.

U. S. F. POWERFUL

The U. S. F. squad had so much power that they practically bowled the Staters over with the tennis balls, and State, sans English and Cray, would have been behind the eight-ball, instead of the tennis ball. Clecak, Kane, and Lang were the big noise behind the U. S. F. Dons. Lang gave English a battle, and pressed him into three sets, the first time this year that English has gone that far into a match.

STATERS BLOW UP

Cavanaugh and Morrison blew their tops and let the State team down. It seems that every year there is someone on the team who will not do just what the coaches want him to do, and con-

TIME OUT

By TOM THORPE

FLASH!

Daryl Hopkins, Stone's successor to the title of Iron Man, has broken the low hurdle school record by .8 second. . . . Record formerly held by George Donnell.

BIG QUESTION

Remember the Rooty-Toots? . . . Don't tell me we have to start another revolution like the aforementioned one to get some of you Penthouse Pansies off the dime! . . . When we see a track meet, we see MEN . . . when our eyes are focused on our Diamonders we are looking at MEN . . . when we gaze at a basketball, football game or tennis matches we are still watching MEN who are doing their part for this College. . . . But what about the rest of you Romantic Romeos? . . . It's easy to understand the fellow who is working on the outside (although some MEN out for sports now are working outside), or who is physically unfit to participate in any athletics, but the rest of you fellows can show your spirit and co-operation by signing up with George Paiva, for the Block "S" Wrestling and Boxing Show to be held April 22. . . . And you Sally Staters, ask your "dread big, mannikins if him 'oodn't do 'oo a mag'ificent favor and 'westle or box!" . . . Bill Plutte, Bob Chandler have signed up for wrestling, and Ken Johnson, Jim Martin, John Pichotto and Maurio Machi have offered their services in the glove swinging department. . . . Maury "Where-am-I?" Schwarz just informed me he would donate his services, also.

MEN'S SMOKER

Thursday, May 6, will bring forth a Men's Smoker. . . . Frederic Burk Auditorium will be the place for the rendezvous and it will be around the time twilight would ordinarily fall, if we had twilight in S. F. . . . "Monk" Delma is attending to the entertainment end of it, and according to the present plans, it promises to contain plenty of vim, vigor and whoops, my dear! . . . Keep it clean, fellas! . . . O-o-o-o-oh yea!

AGE BEFORE BEAUTY!

Under the superb pitching of Dick "Co-op" Davis, the faculty men gave their bones a good workout Thursday by lambasting, wallowing; in fact, I might go so far as to say they beat the All-Stars! . . . The youngsters, on the short end of a 9-1 score, seemed to swing their bats to the tune of "After the Ball Is Over!" . . . Then it's too late. . . . With Wonnell, "Jelly-Belly" Abbey, "Ted" Treutlein, Leo (the Lion) Nee, "Doc" Herz, "Slip" Miranda, "Danny Boy" Farmer and "5/3" Luntz, the Faculty baseballers found it a cinch to take the boys they hand the cinches out to! . . . Those playing for the All-Stars were: Glasgow, Hearst, Schutz, Shreeve, Smith, Klavich, Rose, Paiva, Stone. . . . Words fail me! . . . Age and experience hold the upper hand . . . or do they? . . . Oh, well.

Gater Nine Meets Marin J.C. Tomorrow At Roberts

GATERETTE GOSSIP . . .

MEMORIES OF CONVENTION

We got up early Wednesday morning and drove and drove and drove. . . . Stopped that night at Medford, Oregon, for a bit of shut-eye. . . . Had cute little auto camp . . . only trouble was we had to sleep with one ear pressed into the pillow, and a finger stuck into the other to quiet the noise of the bowling alley next door. Thursday morning we got up at daybreak and drove and drove some more. . . . Snow storm over Sierras. . . . Chucked a few snowballs. . . . Sure cold. Reached rainy Eugene, Oregon, at noon (had "car" buckles). Started immediately with A. F. C. W. convention proceedings. . . . Certainly kept us on the hop.

We wanted to paint the town red and write to thank all the girls who gave us the delicious box of candy, but were kept so busy that there was nary a minute to spare. Friday morn found Miss Cundiff terribly nervous over her speech. We attended discussions all day and came out feeling pretty good. (We think our W. A. A. is quite advanced as compared with all the others.) Visited new gym at "U. of O." . . . Has two floors underground. Saturday afternoon we were wending our way homeward. Spent the night at an old landmark in Lithia. Got in bed . . . ate peanuts and studied a "bit." Miss Cundiff said she was going to the lobby to read. . . . Don't know, though . . . we have our doubts. . . . Sure had a job keeping tabs on her. Rose early next morning . . . not 'cause we weren't sleepy, but because we couldn't sleep in the old relic. Rode and rode and rode some more. Home at last! It was a swell convention, but we're glad to be back with you. Boy, we certainly have to catch up with a lot of work! W. A. A. should thank us . . . we returned $15.93 to the treasury . . . reason, we were holding the bag.

WAY OUT THAR

Sunday, April 4th, found a group of enthusiastic W. A. A. hikers on a jaunt to Big Lagoon . . . nearly ended with joint-itus after climbing up the famous 300-some-odd steps, and boy, were we fagged out! However, Bollanders' purp, "Inky," cheered us on . . . wonder if his dogs barked? . . . ours sure did. Bumped into scatter-brained Helen Shinn, who had been hiking with the wrong group all morning, after going around and around the winding trails.

First Encounter Between State and Marin Nines; Game a Toss-up

With the seasonal halfway mark already reached and only two defeats marring its record, the Gater baseball team tomorrow plays host to the Marin J. C. nine. The contest is scheduled for Roberts Field and will start at 3:30.

FIRST ENCOUNTER

This will be the first time the two institutions have met on the diamond, although Gaters have met Mariners on the cinder path or across the scrimmage line.

The men from the Marin side should offer a tough opponent for the Harden proteges, some of the positions on the team being filled by classy semi-pro players from Sausalito and Mill Valley.

Little is known of the actual record of the Jaysee team. However, it took the powerful U. S. F. baseballers thirteen innings to beat the Mariners by one run, 4-3. By comparing the relative strength of the trans-bay outfit, it seems that the Purple is up against a powerful, well-balanced foe.

STATE LOSES TWO

State still goes merrily on its way with only two defeats against twelve victories. The first loss came when the strong Spartan nine took measure of the locals. This bad day can be explained when a few simple facts are considered. On Wednesday of that week the Gaters had knocked out eighteen hits against the Santa Clara Broncs, and on Friday seventeen base blows at Menlo. When a team collects thirty-five hits in two games it is not likely that much hitting will be done in the third game. That third game came at San Jose, when the San Franciscans managed only one safety.

ABBEY STILL LEADS

Even though the pastimers had a hard day at San Jose, and got only seven bingles while being defeated by the Cal. Cinnamon Bears, 14 to 4, nevertheless the ball players are slugging the apple at a .314 clip. Bill "Gabby" Abbey, catcher, still leads the squad, hitting .680 in college games. Pretty fair, pretty fair. Runar Stone paces the hurlers with five wins and no losses.

Books Presented By Kappa Delta Pi

Members of State's chapter of Kappa Delta Pi will go on an excursion to see the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children in order to present them with a quantity of children's books.

Under the direction of Helene Rowan, book chairman, the club has spent several months in collecting the used books from various sources.

Another activity planned by the group is an alumnae homecoming. Leon Minear is making plans for this affair, according to Geraldine Rademaker, president of the society.

ANNUAL WORRY—to get you to subscribe to the Franciscan.

Building Program Still Uncertain

Action of the Strategy Committee, composed of Howard Demeke, Bud Decker, Ed Cockrum, and Will Smith, was waiting word from Sacramento, according to statement from Ed Cockrum.

At present no trips to the capitol are contemplated to further the building program bill calling for over $2,000,000. Cockrum told Gater reporters that as soon as it was necessary to talk before the Finance Committee of the Senate, the student committee of strategy would move in on the capitol, as they did when the bill came up before the Committee on Ways and Means.

Patience was the word stressed by Cockrum in describing the attitude necessary for the next few weeks.

Westminster Club Holds House Party

"The membership and interest of State students in the Westminster Club has tripled this last term, and we are looking forward to an even greater participation and interest during the coming semester," commented Bob Prather, President of the Westminster Club, when speaking of the activities of the organization.

In addition to the address given by Wendell Beck, a theological student, who spoke to the group on the subject, "Youth and Religion," a male quartette presented several vocal numbers, serious and otherwise.

Swimming, hiking, and campfire singing will constitute the recreation planned for the party which is scheduled to be held over the week-end of this event will be held April 24 and 25, at the Bolander home at Point Reyes.

This house party is limited to thirty members, and the cost will be approximately $3.00. Everyone should bring two blankets.

Annual Photos to Be Completed Soon

Picture taking for the Year Book, delayed as least two weeks by persistent rainy weather, is now under full swing and should be completed soon, according to Bob Barry, editor.

Following its theme, the "Franciscan" will attempt to show State College history pictorially, from its origin to the present day. Pictures include the old Powell Street location, views after the 1906 earthquake, our campus ten years ago, and other spectacular scenes, sections will trace the growth of the campus. These pictures have heretofore never been published.

Music pictures will be completed today and tomorrow, according to Bill Buchan, in charge of photography. Monday will have pictures of the Madrigals at one o'clock; Spring Music Federation officers at one; Fall officers at noon; Piano Ensemble at noon; Chorus and A Cappella on Tuesday at noon; Band at 11 on Tuesday; Orchestra and String Quartette at noon on Monday.
